

NDCC '11-33-20 does not prevent townships from enacting their own zoning regulations pursuant to NDCC '58-03-11 through NDCC '58-03-15, but it does allow townships to relinquish their powers, or any portion thereof to enact zoning regulations to the county by resolution of the board of township supervisors.

The following is a list of the Townships that have released their responsibilities to the County for the administration and execution of the duties of planning and zoning rights:

For Townships not included in the Wells County Zoning Ordinance, see the Public Officials List on the Auditor's page of this website to find the Township Officials contact list.
