

Extension of Due Date for Property Taxes

North Dakota Century Code 57-20-01.1

Extension of due date for property taxes when County Treasurer's Office is closed. When the due date for full or installment payment of any property taxes or special assessments falls on a day on which the County Treasurer's office is not open for business, the payment may be made on the first day following on which the office is open without penalty or loss of discount.